TO REPORT ON PALESTINE.

Felix Frankfurter of U. S. Mission Is to Washington.

WARRINGTON, Aug. 11.—Felix Frank-furter, who with former Ambassador Morgenthau and Louis Epstein, former Special Agent of the State Department in the Baikan States, went to Europe on a special mission in connection with the amelioration of the condition of war sufferers in Palestine, has strived in Washiston to make a preliminary fesufferers in Palestine, has arrived in Washigton to make a preliminary report to Secretary Lansing. Messre Morgenthau and Epstein are still in Europe. The commission found its work could not be prosecuted owing to the military situation in Palestine, but has acquired a mass of information which is expected to facilitate relief measures in contemplation just as soon as the British campaign has progressed to a satisfactory position.

"EAT ALL YOU CAN'T CAN."

New Slogan of Department of Agriculture Announced. WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—"Eat all you an't can" is the new slogan of the Department of Agriculture in its campaign State who have accepted appointment for conservation of perishable fruits and in the Officers Reserve Corps; vegetables. Heretofore, it has been "can in the Officers Reserve Corps; all you can," but now with a big output of fruits and vegetables the Department is pointing out that the housewive might well vary her menus by deviaing dishes composed in large part of these products which will not keep.

"While it is imperative that as much "While it is imperative that as much food as possible should be put up in time or glass jars, or else dried and properly stored," says a Department statement, "It is nevertheless well to bear in mind that by varying the diet much food which would otherwise be lost can be made to sustain life."

SALOONS NEAR FORT REOPEN.

Police Await Albany's Orders Following Cropsey Decision.

As a result of the recent decision by Supreme Court Justice Cropsey, the sa-loons in the vicinity of Fort Hamilton, loons in the vicinity of Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, are open again. The police and the officials of the Excise Department are not taking any action until they hear from Albany.

The grocer whose place is in the barred zone and who was arrested for selling liquors began selling again yesterday. Immediately saloon keepers in the barred district opened their doors. The grocer claimed his business would have been ruined if the decision declaring the "zone ruling" of the State Excise Department to be illegal had not been handed down.

$75,000 BAIL FOR SMUGGLING. Three Alleged Leaders Held in Steamship Gothland Care.

United States Commissioner McGoldrick in Brooklyn fixed ball yesterday at $25,000 each for the three alleged leaders on the steamship Gothland in the Bel-gian relief service, who were arrested Friday night on charges of having smuggled rubber and other commodities and at $10,000 each for the six firemen nto Germany.

They were unable to furnish security for their examination on August 22 and were taken back to Raymond street jail.
